The Contest Organiser shall not be liable for any damage for which it is not at fault and which is incurred by a Contest Participant as a result of participating in the Contest in a manner inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions. In particular, the Contest Organiser shall not be liable for damage resulting from the inability to use the Registration Form, loss of profits suffered by the Participant, damage resulting from the loss or modification of User data, or any other damage resulting from failure to comply with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.

2. The Contest Organiser's liability towards a Contest Participant (irrespective of the basis on which it arises) shall always be limited to the value of the actual damage.

3. The Contest Organiser's liability towards a Contest Participant in connection with the use of the Application is set out in the document General Terms of Use – User Terms and Conditions available at https://www.nais.co/.

X. COMPLAINTS

1. Activities related to the organisation and conduct of the Contest may be the subject of a complaint submitted by a Contest Participant electronically via the messaging tool available on the Contest Organiser's website or in the Application, by email sent to support@nais.co, or in writing to the registered office of the Contest Organiser, from the date on which the Contest begins until 14 (fourteen) days after the date on which the Contest ends.

2. A properly submitted complaint should include at least the following information:

(a) the Contest Participant's first name, surname and email address;

(b) a detailed description of the subject matter of the complaint together with its justification.

3. The complaint shall be considered by the Contest Organiser within no more than 14 (fourteen) days from the date on which the notification is received.

4. The response to the complaint shall be provided using the same means of communication by which the complaint was submitted.

5. Where the response to the complaint is provided in writing, the date on which the correspondence containing the response to the complaint is dispatched to the User's address shall be deemed the date on which the complaint was considered.

6. Complaints relating to the use of the Application shall be handled in accordance with the rules set out in the document General Terms of Use – User Terms and Conditions available at https://www.nais.co/.

XI. TECHNICAL CONDITIONS AND SECURITY

1. The minimum technical requirements necessary to participate in the Contest, including the rules governing the protection of data transmission over the Internet and the rules governing the availability of the Service and the Application, are specified in the document General Terms of Use – User Terms and Conditions available at https://www.nais.co/.

2. A Contest Participant is entitled to report failures and other irregularities in the operation of the Registration Form and the Application to the Contest Organiser electronically via the messaging tool available on the Contest Organiser's website or in the Application, by email sent to support@nais.co, or in writing to the registered office of the Contest Organiser.

XII. PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING RULES

1. The Contest Organiser and the Contest Participant are required to comply with the provisions of Applicable Law, in particular Data Protection Law.

2. The Contest Organiser shall ensure appropriate protection of the Contest Participant's personal data. All personal data provided by the Contest Participant shall be collected, stored and processed in accordance with Data Protection Law.

3. Detailed information regarding the processing of Contest Participants' personal data is provided in the Privacy Policy and the Privacy Notice available at https://www.nais.co/.

XIII. AMENDMENTS TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Organiser reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions for valid reasons, which shall include:

(a) the introduction, amendment or repeal of generally applicable provisions of law resulting in the need to amend these Terms and Conditions, solely to the extent and in the manner reflecting the change in such provisions and in accordance with the principle of proportionality;

(b) the issuance of a final court judgment or administrative decision concerning the Contest Organiser. The Contest Organiser shall make amendments solely to the extent resulting from the content of the aforementioned judgments or decisions, provided that they directly affect the content of the contractual relationship and an amendment to these Terms and Conditions is necessary to comply with such judgment or decision;

(c) the issuance, amendment or repeal by competent national or European authorities of decisions, orders, recommendations, guidelines, positions or other legal acts addressed to the Service Provider, which give rise to an obligation or entitlement of the Service Provider to amend the content of the contractual relationship, or the issuance by the President of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection (UOKiK) of a decision declaring a provision of standard contract terms unfair and prohibiting its use, addressed to another entity, if the content of the standard contract term indicated in that decision and declared unfair corresponds to the content of these Terms and Conditions. Amendments shall be made in accordance with the principle of proportionality, solely to the extent resulting from the content of the aforementioned decisions, orders, recommendations, guidelines, positions or other legal acts;

(d) changes to the functionality of the Registration Form resulting in the need to amend these Terms and Conditions, solely to the extent and in the manner reflecting the change in such functionality and in accordance with the principle of proportionality;

(e) the need to update the Contest Organiser's contact, address or registration details; introduce a new marketing name for the Contest or change its existing marketing name; correct typographical, spelling or punctuation errors; introduce editorial or organisational changes; change the style, font or graphic design; combine or separate terms and conditions – provided that this does not prejudice the interests of the Contest Participant or adversely change the scope of the Participant's obligations or rights;

(f) the introduction of a new service, functionality or product solely by supplementing these Terms and Conditions with provisions concerning new services, functionalities or products, or by adapting the existing provisions of these Terms and Conditions so that they take account of the new services, functionalities or products;

(g) the withdrawal of a functionality, service or product by deleting from these Terms and Conditions provisions relating to the withdrawn services or functionalities, or by adapting existing provisions of these Terms and Conditions so that they take account of the withdrawal of a functionality, service or product, provided that this does not prejudice the interests of the Contest Participant or adversely change the scope of the Participant's obligations or rights, excluding changes to obligations and rights related to the withdrawn service, functionality or product;

(h) the need to adapt to changes resulting from the technological, technical or IT development of the Contest Organiser, Partners or providers of IT solutions for the Contest Organiser, without which products and services cannot be offered and supported, solely to the extent that this necessitates adapting the provisions of these Terms and Conditions to solutions resulting from such changes, ensures proper performance of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions and does not lead to increased financial burdens on the Contest Participant.

2. Any amendment to these Terms and Conditions shall in each case be made subject to notification of Users at least 14 (fourteen) days before the date on which the amended Terms and Conditions enter into force. Notification shall be made by a message sent to the email address if it has been provided by the Contest Participant in the Registration Form. Information about the amendment shall also be published at https://konkurs-wyzwanie-wydawanie-2026.nais.co/.

3. If a Contest Participant does not accept amendments to these Terms and Conditions, the Contest Participant shall be entitled to withdraw consent to participate in the Contest within 14 (fourteen) days from the date on which notification of the amendments is received.

XIV. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. In matters not regulated by these Terms and Conditions, the provisions of Applicable Law shall apply.

2. The language of communication between the Contest Organiser and the Participant shall be Polish.

3. All economic copyrights and industrial property rights relating to the Contest as a whole and to its individual parts shall belong to the Service Provider or entities cooperating with the Service Provider.

4. If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is declared invalid or ineffective in the manner provided for by law, this shall not affect the validity or effectiveness of the remaining provisions of these Terms and Conditions. The invalid provision shall be replaced by a rule that most closely reflects the purposes of the invalid provision and of these Terms and Conditions as a whole.

5. The Contest Organiser shall provide the Contest Participant with continuous and free access to the content of these Terms and Conditions in a manner allowing them to be saved and reproduced repeatedly in the ordinary course of use. The Terms and Conditions are available at https://www.nais.co/.

6. These Terms and Conditions shall enter into force on 21 September 2026.
